Gov. Bowie Declares for Pendleton.

The President's Organs Assault Grant.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7, 1868.

Congress.

The Senate was engaged throughout the day mainly upon the bill extending the charter of Washington City, which was passed, and upon the naval appropriation bill.

The House will be called to order to-morrow, but the evening indications are there will not be a quorum present.

The President's Defence.

All engaged in the impeachment case on the side of the President are working with remarkable energy in arranging the case for the defense. While professing to feel confident of acquittal, great uneasiness is manifested through the pains taken to make up their case. Last night the number of clerks employed in and among the Treasury records, looking for evidence, was three hundred, and they were kept very busy till a late hour. In addition to those already mentioned as summoned for the President, are Hon. John Hogan, of St. Louis; Solicitor Butler, of the Treasury; E. P. Smith, of the State Department, and J. B. Stillson, of the New York Herald. Mr. Zeidler, Secretary of Mayor Thomas, of St. Louis, had left the city before the summons was issued, and has been telegraphed to at St. Louis.

For Pendleton.

Governor Bowie, of Maryland, has addressed a card to the Baltimore American, in which he speaks as follows: "Concurring Pendleton for the Presidency, so far from co-operating with Mr. Blair in his opposition to Mr. Pendleton, if he is indeed opposed to him, Mr. Pendleton is my present preference for the Presidency, and I am one of those who, having had enough of war, want to see men in the Presidential office."

The President's Organs and Grant.

Each of the President's journals are very severe to-day in their denunciations of Grant for the statement published that he is in favor of impeachment. The Intelligencer says: "The failure of Gen. Grant to deny emphatically and in his own name this monstrous charge of the New York Tribune must be taken as evidence of his inharmonious of the whole statement of menace in the Senate. If he had drawn his sword and marched his cohorts to the door of the Senate to compel them to obey his mandates, it would scarcely be worse."

Tom Florence quotes the fifth article of war concerning the use of disrespectful language to a superior officer, and calls for his arraignment under it, and also says it is the plain duty of the President to revoke his commission and strike his name from the rolls of the army.

Pierpoint's Removal.

Strictly speaking Governor Pierpoint, of Virginia, was not removed under the late laws of Congress. No elections were held, and as a consequence the terms of many civil offices have expired, among them Pierpoint's. Gen. Schofield issued an order providing for the re-appointment and those of this class who were efficient and eligible to the oath of the old constitution or who could take the oath adopted in the new, which covers the case. He was also entirely faithful.

No Fourth of July Holiday.

The last Maryland Legislature in their revision of the school law of the State have abolished the provision by which the Fourth of July was made a holiday in the schools.

Senatorial Contest—Speech by his Successor.

Senator Spencer's gentlemanly colleague entered suit against the Senator for some reason in the District Court, Judge Wylie to-day dismissed the case upon the defendant pleading the law upon Congressional privilege.

Personal.

Hon. C. W. Fulton, of Indiana, leaves for home to-night, on account of sickness in his family.

The Daily Commercial

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1868.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

As proof of the ultimate placed on the market reports of the COMMERCIAL, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Economist, Shipping List, Iron Age, and other papers of like character in that and other cities, and that leading English commercial papers and circulars regularly request them with credit. There is within the limited miles, hardly an Iron Factory, Oil Refinery, or leading manufactory of any kind that is not a subscriber to the COMMERCIAL, principally, because its reports are the only full and reliable given of the Pittsburgh markets.

CROP AND FRUIT PROSPECT.

Our fluids everywhere will confer a favor by writing us briefly concerning the grain and fruit prospect, and the farming and business prospect generally. We shall be obliged for any item of local interest that may be within their knowledge.

TWENTY-FIRST DISTRICT.

The letter signed by over fourteen hundred Republicans, addressed to Colonel Wm. Phillips, requesting him to permit his name to be used in connection with the nomination for Congress in the Twenty-First District, and his reply, setting forth his reasons for declining to comply with the request, will be found in our columns to-day. The application to Colonel Phillips for the use of his name was backed by the great body of his Republican fellow-citizens, the long list of signers embodying the active influence, strength and character of the party in the District, and alone, go-ther it was an invitation to stand for an office of distinction, such as few men ever have an opportunity either to accept or decline. In declining it Col. Phillips manifested whatever aspirations he may have had to the welfare of the great enterprise with which he is identified, and in which the citizens of Pittsburgh and the State have an immediate interest—the Allegheny Valley Railroad, of which Company he is the President. In that capacity he will serve not only his District but the public at large; and in the prosecution of that enterprise, his friends, no doubt, will be as ready to render him all the support in their power as they were to confer on him the honors of office.

The local elections in Ohio on Monday, generally show that the Republicans of that State are awake and fully able to wipe out the stigma of last fall's election.

It would seem that the Supreme Court of the United States has the misfortune to disagree with those of our Common Pleas Judges who think a colored man should not practice law, for we learn from Washington that, on the 6th instant, a motion was made to admit George E. Vasmer to practice in that Court and immediately granted, whereupon Mr. Vasmer, with others, took the oath.

The Republicans of Connecticut nestled for United States Senator Dixon, who proved false to them and went over to Johnson. And herein is the real significance of the result. Last year the Republicans had eleven majority on joint ballot. That would have been enough this time, but to make the thing sure, and give Mr. Dixon a hint he will understand, the Republicans took something like fifty majority on joint ballot!

THE New York Commercial Advertiser, (Mr. WARD's paper), intimates that even if impeachment succeeds the Johnson Cabinet will not resign, "so that when "Senator WADE becomes 'acting' President he has but two Cabinet Ministers to "appoint, viz: an Attorney General to fill "a vacancy, and a Secretary of the Interior, in place of Mr. BROWNING, who "was appointed by 'acting' President "Johnson." Mr. WARD remarks, therefore, that "before the Radicals can get possession of the Treasury and the other Departments, they must repeal the Tenure "of Office Law." Mr. WARD was in Washington recently in conference with Secretaries SEWARD and MCCULLOCH. Does he speak by the card?

THE election in Connecticut on Monday resulted in the choice of a Democratic Governor and a Republican Legislature, which carries with it a Republican United States Senator, in the place of DIXON, who Johnson lost. Because they did not lose everything the Democrats feign to be jubilant. The State was there before, and because they didn't lose it entirely, they rejoice as though they had won a victory. The election of ENGLISH Governor, by some fifteen hundred, even with the slight gain of five hundred over last year, considering the importations from New York, and the naturalization mill ground out Democratic voters—the Republicans meanwhile winning the more substantial victory in carrying the Legislature—furnishes almost as slender reasons for rejoicing as a party ever made a free over. The Republicans of Connecticut will go into the Presidential campaign with at least an even chance. The claim put forth that the President has been sustained, and impeachment condemned, has no foundation in fact. Whatever bearing the result has on the question of impeachment, is directly the reverse of this, in the fact that a Republican United States Senator, to sit in the body before whom the President is being tried, will be chosen to succeed a Senator in whom he has a fast friend. In this aspect, therefore, the result is a verdict against the President and in favor of impeachment.

THOSE who have followed the impeachment trial must have been struck with the smoothness with which the Democrats vote together, as a party, on every question, while the Republicans, discarding party considerations, have on all occasions voted according to the merits of the question presented. Only once or twice have the Republican Senators voted together. On almost every question from three to nine of them have voted with the President's friends; and party considerations have, apparently, had as little influence with them as with the members of any court that ever assembled. The Managers have been more than once defeated, and the points raised by the President's counsel sustained, and on one occasion, at least, on a matter of great importance. But the absence of reference to the slightest trace of bias has been manifested by the Republican Senators, but, on the contrary, the Democrats have voted solid on every question no matter what it was, as partisans. We perceive that on these facts the friends of the President are disposed to build hopes of acquittal. They construe these divisions among the Republicans into a probable disagreement in making up their verdict—and the names of certain Senators are given as almost or quite certain to vote with the Democrats for acquittal. In this we believe they reckon not wisely. The case against the President has been clearly made out; and on the testimony, which cannot be invalidated, already in, no intelligent jury would hesitate to convict.

THE vote on Mr. GLADSTONE's resolutions withdrawing endowment from the English Protestant Church in Ireland—which on all hands is regarded as a startling leap in the direction of great changes—will probably be followed by the dissolution of Parliament. This will throw back on the people this and all the budget of questions—reformatory and revolutionary—which the Liberals are supposed to have in store. The Tory view of the question is plainly indicated by the remark of the London Herald, that "to rush the church is generally the first step of every revolution." The measure is referred to bitterly as "confiscation"—the penalty for the ascendancy of the "party of progress," and only the beginning of the "reforms" which are in store for the realm. "The Irish Church," continues the Herald, "will be but a small morsel toward satisfying the public maw for confiscation which at present possesses the Liberal philosophers." It is plain that the excitement which has characterized English politics for some time past is not going to die out, but will be greatly increased by the failure of the new Ministry on the Church question. The success of MR. GLADSTONE, as adopted, are as follows:

1. That, in consequence of this House it is necessary to alter the constitutional Church of Ireland should be disestablished and disendowed.

2. That, subject to the foregoing considerations, it is expedient to make provision out of such property, and for meeting the claims of any public purpose, and for promoting the religious objects to which it has been appropriated, due regard being had to all personal interests and reasonable expectations that may have been created by the present establishment.

STATE NEWS.

The Union League of Reading has fitted up a handsome reading room, which is largely patronized by the young men of that city.

A lot of cattle are being held in Berks county by Messrs. Hunter, Edwards and William Cleaver.

The following figures show the condition of the Methodist Episcopal denomination in Philadelphia: Fifty churches, 16,377 members, 1,500 probationers, 2,000 Sunday scholars; during the past year, 1,000 members; during the past year, 800; net increase during the past year, 200.

A railroad, consisting of thirty or forty persons, left Charlotte, Cumberland county, last week, with a view to settling in Ray county, Missouri, where they intend to have formed a new and extensive line of the West.

Frank Wilkinson, a young man who attended several of the evening lectures of Rev. Burke recently, on Thursday, drank very deeply, and some words of a quarrel, which he considered, Mr. Burke had spoken concerning him, so impressed him that he committed suicide.

Daniel Crane, a veteran of 1812, died suddenly of apoplexy in Reading, on Saturday, in the seventy-fifth year of his age.

Isaac Reitz, a most unprepossessing of Andy Johnson sympathizers, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn on Tuesday afternoon last. It is said that he had been drinking to excess for a month previous to the commission of the fatal act.

Prevention and Cure.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and everybody who uses Walker's Hop Bitters experiences the fact. These bitters will prevent disease because it purifies the system and forms a complete barrier to physical ills of every kind. But when disease has already crept into the blood it has no equal in driving it out speedily and effectually. For the spring season, Walker's Hop Bitters is invaluable as a preventative of disease. It is sure to lay the foundation for a healthful and vigorous existence during the succeeding seasons, and this has been demonstrated in thousands upon thousands of cases. Now is the time to purify the system and cleanse the blood. These bitters have no equal in the world for this purpose, and the medical faculty in our several towns are commencing to use them in their practice. Druggists' hospital medicine ever discovered for keeping all diseases. Sold by all druggists. Patentees R. Hoffee, managers of Branch House, No. 30 Market street. w-tu-th

Unrivaled.

Nothing that has ever been known or heard of as a tonic adds so much to the resistant power of the human system, under circumstances requiring support, as HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. If you would escape the intermittent fevers, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks and bowel complaints, of which cold and damp are the prolific causes, resort to BITTERS as a PROTECTIVE MEDICINE. This is the wisest course, for, if assaults an invalid, by the preparation as a RESTORATIVE. Inactivity once full, reliance may be placed upon its efficacy.

There is no mystery about the causes of its success. In its pure economic and pharmaceutical properties are combined the grand requisites of a mild, pure and meliorated vegetable stimulant, with the finest selection of roots, and herbs, and vegetables, aromatic and digestive herbs, plants, roots and barks that have ever been interested in a medicinal preparation.

The Bitters have two distinctive qualities which it was feared, it is believed, by many connoisseurs could not be united. It does not excite the pulse, though it infuses wonderful degree of vigor into the system, and strengthens and sustains the whole physical organization.

California and Australia have emphatically indorsed it as the WONDER WORKER of the continent, and in Spanish America and all the tropical climates, it is considered the only reliable antidote to epidemic fevers.

Its popularity is immense and still increasing, commission of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which has stood for many of the most influential physicians throughout the country, is sufficient to assure the most critical mind that it is worthy the confidence and appreciation of all.

Standish Manchuria Carbuncle.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! WHAT IS ITS HOW CURED!

Thousands of persons have Fire—suffer for years with the disease—yet few know what it is or how it is cured. Every case of Fire, whether manifested in the form of carbuncle, boils, fever sores, scrofulous swellings or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon congestion of the subdermal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation and inflammation, forming the fire, with its pain and suffering, and the disease can only be permanently cured by medicines which, before internally, relieve the venous congestion. Boils, carbuncles, scrofula, and other impurities, are so ineffective.

DR. HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC FIRE SPECIFIC, a simple sugar pill, taken two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upon which the disease depends. Hundreds have been cured in a week of the most obstinate cases. Price, $1 per box, will be promptly remitted by it. Price, $1 sent to box.

CITY MATTERS.

Taxes in Pleasant.—The income tax, Peter Wise, who was brought from the West a few days ago and placed in the city lock-up, was taken before Alderman Bingham yesterday by the police and assessed.

A Pennsylvania Railroad Accident.—A man giving the name of John W. Baton, fatally injured on the road was arrested in Hamburg on Saturday, charged with attempting to obtain the pocket of a lady named Mrs. Rachel Hoagard, in the market house on Monday last. Baton was caught with the hand in Mrs. Hoagard's pocket, and was immediately arrested. At the hearing a lady, who witnessed the attempt, was present, and identified the prisoner as the man. Alderman being convinced of the correctness of the charge, committed the accused to jail in default of $600 bail. Baton stated that he arrived in Pittsburgh on the Pennsylvania Railroad train, but was unable to give the number of the car in which he came, as he was on the platform of the car at the time of the accident, and did not notice the number of the car in which he was riding. He was committed to jail.

Pittsburgh.

The County Work-house.

The contractors for the erection of the county work-house are busily engaged on the foundations, and the walls of the main building will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible. It is confidently believed that the Workhouse will be ready for occupancy by the first of December next. This will afford ample relief to the County Jail, and prisoners, both of weekly and monthly sentence are recommended with economy. When the Work-House is completed, the County Jail will be given over to the use of the Sheriff, and every facility for the safe keeping of prisoners awaiting trial, or under sentence of the Courts, will be afforded. It does not speak well for our morals, or the economical police management of the city, that prisoners in our jails, to an extent, are not kept busy at work, and made to earn their own support
